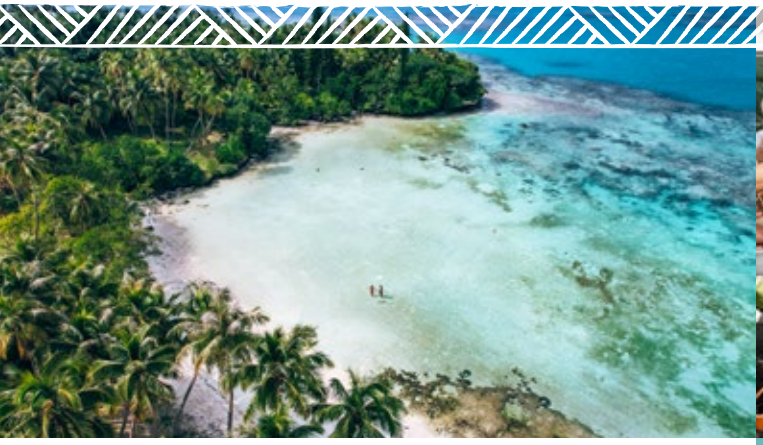
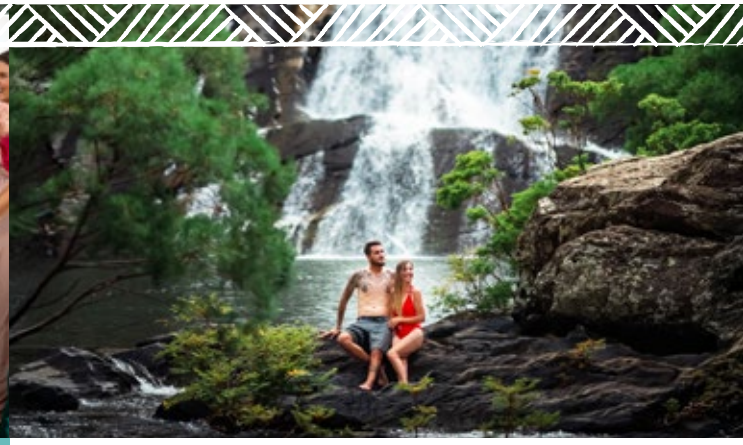
Weddings and Honeymoons in New Caledonia

Turquoise lagoons, wild beaches and a touch of French elegance: imagine an unforgettable celebration and a romantic escape in the heart of the Pacific!





A SETTING MADE FOR LOVE

Far from the crowds, New Caledonia offers a rare setting for unforgettable moments together. Almost deserted beaches, secluded islets, a UNESCO World Heritage-listed lagoon and vast unspoilt landscapes create a natural sense of intimacy and exclusivity.

And getting away from it all doesn't mean giving up comfort. Nouméa, a modern French capital and gateway to the archipelago, offers hotels and resorts, restaurants, spas, shops and services. From there, it is just a short journey to the Isle of Pines, the Loyalty Islands or the wild landscapes of the main island, Grande Terre.

Combining pristine nature, French art de vivre and Pacific Island cultures, New Caledonia has all the ingredients for an escape that is uniquely yours.

SAY "I DO", YOUR WAY

Barefoot on the beach overlooking the lagoon, beneath a floral arch, on a secluded islet, aboard a catamaran or at an elegant resort: choose a setting that feels like you. Whether you are planning a wedding, renewing your vows or holding a symbolic ceremony, local professionals can help bring every detail to life, from the perfect venue to the reception.

And if you want to make it official, foreign couples can also, under certain conditions, legally marry at Nouméa City Hall. Some administrative formalities need to be completed in advance, so early planning is essential.

Intimate or spectacular, symbolic or official, elegant or barefoot: make the day truly yours.

LET THE DREAM CONTINUE

Once the celebrations are over, your wedding can flow seamlessly into your honeymoon. Wake up beside the lagoon, sail by catamaran to a secluded islet, glide across the crystal-clear waters of the Isle of Pines in a traditional outrigger canoe, or enjoy a spa treatment overlooking the ocean.

Looking for adventure? Fly over the lagoon, ride horseback along the beach or explore the wild landscapes of Grande Terre together.

Or simply slow down and enjoy being together, far from the crowds, as the sun sets over the Pacific.
